WHAT'S HAPPENING AT CAMBRIDGE CITY CHRISTIAN CHURCH

- 1 October is Pastor Appreciation Month— Over the next two weeks the Prayer Team is collecting donations to treat our Pastors (Danny, James, & Daria) to a special gift to be given next month. If you would like to contribute, please mark your envelopes "Pastor Appreciation." Thank you for your help in giving back to three people who selflessly serve our church and community.
- 2 Operation Christmas Child— Pick-up a box (or two) downstairs before, or after service today. Please see Jenni Risch for any questions, or for more information.
- 3 Trunk-or-Treat Candy— Help the Gatherings Team as they collect candy for this year's Trunk-or-Treat event. We are in need of a lot of candy as we plan for 550 children to attend this outreach event. Donations can be dropped off to the information desk in the foyer, or the CCCC office in the Ministry Center.
- 4 Trunk or Booth?— Pick a booth inside the gym or tailgate in the parking lot. Set out individually, team up with your family, or make it a fun outreach for your Life Group. Please remember to bring your own candy to pass out. We had over 500 children attend this fun outreach event last year! We need at least 28 booths/trunks!
- 5 Christmas Choir & Ensemble— Choir rehearsals will start in early October on Sundays from 4-5pm. Instrumental ensemble rehearsals will start in November on Sundays from 5-5:45pm. Mark your "My Response" card to join.

If you have questions about items in the bulletin, please contact the office.
